

Cut off the Bulgarian fiber optic cable

Overview

The Bulgarian ship "Vezhen", which was detained by Swedish authorities two weeks ago on suspicion of deliberately severing an optical fiber cable in the Baltic Sea, has now been released. Issued on: 27/01/2025 - 12:10 Modified: 27/01/2025 - 12:11 The seized cargo. STOCKHOLM, Jan 6 — The Baltic Sea region is on high alert after a string of power cable, telecoms link and gas pipeline outages since Russia invaded Ukraine in 2022, and NATO has boosted its military presence with frigates, aircraft and naval drones. Police in the region have found that some. Nigel Farage has attacked the scheme as "a means of controlling the population." Many ask whether the backlash would be the same if a Muslim made similarly blunt remarks about Christianity. "We are launching a review of Hungary's constitutional system; we will strengthen the system of checks and. Numerous incidents of suspected Russian-linked sabotage of undersea cables in the Baltic Sea has seen tensions rise among nearby countries, and an increased Nato presence.
