

Three-year warranty CFP2PAM4

Overview

American Power Conversion (APC) warrants its Smart-UPS (Products) to be free from defects in materials and workmanship for a period of three (3) years, excluding the batteries, which are warranted for two (2) years, from date of purchase. Take MOOG's recent move: their 0.04% warranty return rate in 2022 highlights how advanced manufacturing reduces defects. Eagle Lite's 2025 rollout and Jayco's tiered coverage further prove extended warranties signal operational excellence. What do you need help with?

Where did you buy your APC product from?

Additional information can be found in our Return & Warranty Policies. We're happy to provide technical. Only Three Your Way Complete and Value Plans on 12 month and 24 month contract can get Extended Warranty for up to 3 years (36 months), until they upgrade their plan or leave Three. Please note, Extended Warranty only applies to the handset you purchased at the time of taking out your Three Your. Selected project-based Dahua products shipped on January 1, 2022, onwards are now covered by the upgraded 5-year warranty, free of charge. These changes mean that we periodically transition away from selling or servicing certain hardware or software products to focus on innovation in bringing exciting new products to the market.
